

---

Il Direttore

Appointment of the Evaluation Commission for the “ATENƏ Award: Gendered Innovations at CNR 2023 (Project MindtheGeps).

THE DIRECTOR

Based on the proposed Evaluation Commission composition by the award promoters, Nicolò Marchesini, Melanie Timpel, Cristiana Crescimbene, Lucio Pisacane

Following the Call for Competition/proposals ATENƏ AWARD (prot. Irpps n. 0195927 del 26/6/2023);

In line with to the Determines and Provision of financial commitment for the call for proposals (prot. Irpps n. 0195927 del 26/6/2023);

PROVIDES

The 18 applications received for the ATENƏ AWARD should be evaluated by the following group of experts selected on the base of their experience and competences:

- Roberta Colonna Dahlman, Senior Lecturer at the University of Lund (Sweden);
- Marina D’Amelia, former Professor at the Sapienza University of Rome (Italy),
- Silvia De Francia, Associate Professor at the University of Turin (Italy);
- Matteo D’Este, Head Biomedical Materials Laboratory at AO Foundation, Graubünden (Switzerland);
- Claudio Gnessi, social activist, urban planner and president of Ecomuseo Casilino, Rome (Italy);
- Cloe Mirenda, Researcher at the Italian National Research Council (Italy);
- Fridolin Kielisch, Biostatistician at the Institute of Molecular Biology, Mainz (Germany);
- Frederike Petzschner, Professor at the Carney Institute for Brain Science at Brown University (USA);
- Elizabeth Politzer, Director of Portia (UK and Germany);
- Vera Regitz-Zagrosek, former Professor at the Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin (Germany);
- Giuliana Rubbia Rinaldi, Senior Technologist at the National Institute of Geophysics and Volcanology (Italy);
- Matthias Schott, Assistant Professor at the University Bayreuth (Germany).

IRPPS-CNR DIRECTOR

Dott. Mario Paolucci